Hey because I had gun residue on my hands from us shooting guns and they asked who it's with. You're not a suspect they already declared it a suicide bc
they know by the ballistic test what kind of gun that was shot and what time
and the gun powder on

3 MARCH 2014

Whitley claims she has results from the (GSR Test) performed by Police

* Results were not released until 31 March 2014

Christians hands

OK

When did they question
you?

They didn't. His family did.

What did they say

Saying that it wasn't a suicide and I better pray I wasn't behind it. Like I always get caught up in shit bc of you..

MATT Miller (Blue)

How can you say that right now?

Because I'm getting threats over something I

Whitley (Gray)

Because I'm getting threats over something I have no clue about!

That's why!

I'm getting threatened too but I can't help it!

That's not even the issue to me the issue is that he's gone

And there's no way it was a homicide either bc he was shot in the side of the head... I didn't even know that until yesterday

And I didn't have his kind of gun powder on my hands

How would she have known this?

And I'm sorry he's gone,
but I didn't talk to him or nothing and I'm in it!

MATT claims to have had no contact with Christian

Be I shot guns with you
the night before he shot himself Matt

When did they come to you?

Wintley told investigators and Police that she was shooting guns the day before Christian's death with MATT Miller & Jet Miller

Last night.

However, Matt confirms she did not handle or shoot a gun with them

Please don't kick me when
I'm down

I'm not?

Did you find Christian or did Dylan find him???

Dylan

You told me you woke up to a gun shot and found him???

No, Dylan found him told me an I found him

Your story has changed so much.

What?

So where was he shot?

You told me something COMPLETELY different!

His head. I didn't even know where he was shot

Whitley is changing her story.

- Whitley told detectives that she was asleep, never heard a shot, and that Dylan found the body.
- Whitley told Matt Miller she awoke to the sound of a gunshot

Matt Miller explains how her story has changed dramatically since the day of the event his head. I didn't even know where he was shot when it happened bc it didn't go through. I just found that out

How did I do that?

You told me y'all feel asleep together and you woke up to a gun shot, ran up stairs and found him. You said nothing about Dylan! You said YOU found him.

GAME Changer

Dylan didn't ever even go upstairs Dylan told me to check on him and I did and he was dead

Totally different from the statements given by both Dylan and Wintley

Dylan said HE FOUND HIM!! I talked to the Judge!

 Wintley says in these texts that she was the one who found him, then says it was Dylan, then says Dylan told her to check on him?*

HIM!! I talked to the Judge!
Christian Uncle! My uncle!

But you told the police a whole different story??

You're trying to say I'm guilty?

Fuck idk! Nobody knows!
Why would he kill himself?? Everybody's trying to find out!

Wish I could tell u

Yeah

My story did change

My story did change because I didn't want to make you feel bad. He did know we were together because he tracked my phone. I didn't tell you because I didn't want to make you feel bad. You have to consider I've went through more than I should have with all this. I was cleared as a suspect and it was ruled as a suicide. Did anyone ever stop and think my whole entire life ended by finding what I did in the bathtub from ONE night of fucking up?

I'm not saying this because I wanna get high with you, but just to clear

Both DALLAS & DALLAS's Mother gave statements to Police that she was acting totally fine and like nothing had happened. She continued to party, laugh and have a great time for the 4 days following the event that she stayed with them While Dylan has been cooperative with Police, he is a known drug abuser and easily manipulated. Known to be a follower.

Claims he was @ Best Buy during the time of death but we have no evidence to prove this.

Someone was using Christian's phone after the time of death?

- Whitley was supposed to be asleep
- Dylan was supposed to be @ best buy

Dylan claims that he and Christian were very close and very good friends. Others all confirm that they were nearly just acquaintances.
